The Omega God Sees Our Future

By: Charlotte Fawver

Death is not a subject that we enjoy talking about, but it is a reality. Hebrews 9:27 says, "And as it is appointed unto men once to die..." If Jesus tarries in His coming, it is a fact that we will die. The good news is that to the born again Christian, when he/she dies, they will immediately be with Jesus in a beautiful place called Heaven.

As a counselor, a minister, and from my personal experience, I see how traumatic a death can be. Not only that we grieve but we are faced with so many decisions concerning a funeral. If you have not been suddenly faced with this, you cannot imagine how difficult this is. My dad passed; and all at once, my sister and I had to make many decisions that we were not prepared for. What funeral home do we call, which casket, what cemetery do we use, what does he wear, who officiates the funeral service, etc.; and what does all of this cost?

I had recently been talking to the Lord that if He was going to tarry His coming, that I didn't want my children to have to deal with the stress of what I had dealt with in my Dad's death. I felt impressed to go to a local cemetery and speak with the funeral home director. I chose a cemetery where my grandparents, aunt, and uncle are buried. I knew that the lots for my grandparents were purchased in 1979 when my grandmother went to be with Jesus. I knew that this property must be already filled after so many years had passed. I went ahead and shared with the director the names of my grandparents (by the way, he was a Christian who watches our television program). He went to speak with his manager about the property. He returned, shaking his head. He said, "Well, I can't believe this. ...But, I know that I should." I wanted to say, "Hurry up. What is it that you can't believe?" Finally, he looked at us and said, "Do you remember the tree that was next to your grandparents' lots?" I did, in fact, remember it. He said, "My manager had just written an order to have the tree removed because it is dead. The removal of the tree opens two burial spots next to your grandparents." Needless to say, my tears poured with joy. I knew this was the Lord.

Thirty seven years ago, we broke that ground for my grandmother to be laid to rest. There was a thriving tree that shaded us at her grave side service as we grieved my grandmother and a few years later, my grandfather. All of these years, the tree lived, then died so that I could have the special place of being near my grandparents if I should pass before the coming of our Lord.

Our great God says, "I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty." God saw my desire from the future before I was ever born. He had already worked His plan in the life and death of a tree. Just as the Lord was so perfect in this timing, He is perfect in His timing concerning you. Be sensitive to His leading, and then obey Him. He will direct your path in His perfect will (Prov. 3:5&6).

To finish my story, I bought the two grave plots. ...And if I am laid to rest there, you can be sure that my body will be raised a glorified body to meet Jesus in the air.

Rays of Light

I counseled with a lady who had been experiencing many attacks from the devil. Now, I know that there are issues that we all deal with, but this woman was being hit on every side. Her husband was falsely accused and went to jail. Her son was in a bad relationship. He became sick and was physically ill and doctors could not find out what was wrong with him. Her family was seeing demons and demonic activity in their home. I wondered if a door had been opened to satan. Sure enough, the woman began weeping. She shared with me that God had called her to sing as a ministry several years ago. She had been obedient, but then chose to walk away from her call. She confessed that she had been out of the will of God. She repented, and through the power of God, we closed the doors against satan's attacks. To God be the glory! (Ps. 107:10, 11, 17; 119:67, 71).

Prayer Requests

I remember when Kenneth Hagin, Sr. was alive, he would gently ask for support for his ministry. Then, if they needed to build a classroom at Rhema, he would ask everyone to send an extra five dollars. He simply said that if everyone gave that amount, the need would be met. I supported his ministry in those days, and I was quick to give an extra five every time that he asked. If you are not already supporting Bringing to Light Ministry, would you please give? I, like Kenneth Hagin, am not asking for large sums but a monthly amount that you can afford. When everyone is faithful, the needs are met. Only eternity will declare the eternal rewards of our giving. Thank you from the depths of my heart for helping me share the Good News of Jesus Christ! ~Charlotte Fawver

"...Master, Behold, the Fig Tree Which Thou Cursedst Is Withered Away." (Mark 11:21)

Now, I wonder if someone needed some grave plots where that fig tree stood.
